Did 'ya know?

Pennsylvania produces more mushrooms than any other state. Each year, the state's farmers grow almost 557 million pounds!

And did you know that Pennsylvania is known as the Snack Food Capital of the world? We are home to major producers of pretzels, potato chips, candies and chocolate.