2008 WASHINGTON WINE GRAPE PRODUCTION UP 14 PERCENT CABERNET SAUVIGNON UP 20 PERCENT; WHITE RIESLING UP 10 PERCENT

Washington's 2008 wine grape production totaled 145,000 tons, a record high level, and is up 14 percent from 2007 and 21 percent above 2006. Of the top four varieties, Cabernet Sauvignon showed the largest increase and was up 20 percent from last year. White Riesling overtook Chardonnay as the top variety this year, increasing to 28,500 tons compared to Chardonnay's 28,000 tons. Growers received a record high average of $1,030 per ton for all varieties in 2008, up $76.00 from 2007.

Of the total wine grapes produced, 52 percent were white and 48 percent were red varieties. The top four major varieties accounted for 74 percent of the total state production. White Riesling was the top variety grown in the state at 28,500 tons or 20 percent of the total state production. Chardonnay ranked second, at 28,000 tons, with 19 percent of the total. In third place was Cabernet Sauvignon with 26,100 tons, or 18 percent of the total. Merlot ranked fourth with 25,400 tons or 18 percent of the total. The average White Riesling price per ton increased $68.00 per ton from last year to $812.00 and the average Chardonnay price per ton was up $75.00 from last year to $883.00. Growers received an average of $1,306.00 per ton for Cabernet Sauvignon, $81.00 per ton more than 2007. The average Merlot price per ton increased $73.00 to $1,126.00.

It should be noted that the $1,030.00 per ton for 2008 used to compute the value of production for wine grapes is preliminary and is subject to revision in July 2009.
