

Apply for Jobs at NASS

Step 1:

Visit
usajobs.gov or scan the
QR code.

Step 2:

In the search fields, enter keywords related to your desired position. To view NASS vacancies, enter "NASS" in the first search field.

Step 3:

Select "Search" to view open positions.

Step 4:

See something you like? Create an account to apply online.

About USAJobs:

- A one-stop-shop for federal career opportunities
- User-friendly and accessible
- Current and updated in real time

Top Tip:

Tailor your resume to each position, using keywords and phrases from the job description.

Need Help?

For more tips and guidance, visit usajobs.gov/help

NASS hires college graduates from a wide range of majors:

- Agricultural Economics
- Agricultural Sciences
- Business Administration
- Data Science
- Demography
- Economics
- Engineering
- Geographic Information Systems
- Geography
- Mgmt. Information Systems
- Marketing
- Mathematics
- Operations Research
- Public Relations
- Psychology
- Sociology
- Statistics

United States Department of Agriculture
National Agricultural Statistics Service

nass.usda.gov

USDA's National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS)

Our Mission: NASS provides timely, accurate and useful statistics in service to U.S. agriculture. We do this through data reports that cover nearly every aspect of the industry.

NASS offers excellent opportunities and rewarding work for professionals at every career stage.

NASS also offers paid internships to college students and recent grads—over the summer, during the semester and year round.

For more information, visit nass.usda.gov/careers/

Explore careers in statistics,
IT, imagery analysis and more!

Benefits

- Locality pay & automatic, periodic increases; cash & time off awards
- Health insurance, including dental & vision
- Annual & sick leave; 11 paid holidays per year
- Academic & professional development
- Retirement plan & Thrift Savings Plan with up to 5% agency match

United States Department of Agriculture
National Agricultural Statistics Service

nass.usda.gov