In the past 5 years, U.S. farm operators have become more demographically diverse. The percentage of farms with female principal operator increased from 11.2 percent in 2002 to 13.9 percent in 2007. The number of farms with American Indian or Alaska Native operators, black or African American operators, Hispanic operators, and Asian operators increased from 2002 to 2007 as well.