Publications pertaining to data specific to Indiana can be accessed from our Home page listed above. For a list of available reports, click on Indiana Publications, or choose from the drop down menu below "Indiana Publications", and then click on the yellow go button.

Data for other States can be accessed by choosing the desired State under the Statistics by State button on the bottom left side of the screen.

NASS Subject Specialists:

NASS maintains a listing of subject and commodity specialists for the various program areas. From the NASS Home page, click on Publications, then select Contact a Specialist in the I Want To.... box on the right hand side of the screen.

NASS Customer Service:

NASS operates an information center, staffed 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. ET Monday-Friday, to assist you with accessing reports and data via the Internet, or obtaining printed copies.

Please call 1-800-727-9540.

Quick Stats Tools:

Historical County, State, and U.S. information is available on the Internet FREE OF CHARGE. The database uses custom extracts based on commodity, year, State, and other selection criteria to produce an output file compatible for updating databases and/or spreadsheets. The database can be accessed from the NASS Home page shown above, or any State Field Office Home page. Just click on the Quick Stats button and follow the instructions. Searches for U.S. and State, State and County, and the Census of Agriculture data can be queried from here.

E-Mail Subscriptions:

NASS Reports: Subscriptions to NASS reports are offered free through our e-mail service. From the right side of the NASS Home page, select National under Receive reports by E-mail. First time users will be required to set up an account. Select Register and follow instructions to choose the National reports you would like to receive and they will be delivered as soon as they are published.

The screenshot shows the 'E-Mail Delivery Of Reports' registration page. It includes a search bar, navigation links (Home, About Us, Calendar, Cornell University Mann Library, Help), and a registration form. The form asks for an email address and password, and offers a 'Forgot your password?' link. A sidebar on the left lists various report categories like Baseline, Commodities, Field Crops, etc.

Indiana Field Office Reports: State specific reports are also available free via e-mail. From the right side of the NASS Home page, select State under the heading Receive reports by E-mail. Reports from all states are available with this selection. Scroll down to select the reports you want, enter your name and e-mail address, and then click on Submit. Or, on the right side of the Indiana Field Office Home page, select Subscribe to IN reports. This will give you only reports for Indiana. After entering your name and e-mail address, click on Submit. E-mail reports available through the Indiana Field Office include: All Reports, Agriculture Report, Crop-Weather, Crops and Livestock, Miscellaneous, Press Releases.

The screenshot shows the 'Subscribe to IN Reports' page. It features a header for the Indiana office of USDA's NASS, a 'Subscribe to IN Reports' section with a form for name and email, and a 'Select the Reports to Subscribe' dropdown menu. A sidebar on the right lists 'I Want To...' options like 'Search for Indiana Data and Statistics' and 'More State Features' like 'Crop Progress & Condition'.

Once you "Subscribe", you will receive a confirmation message in your email.

The screenshot shows the 'Reports available via Email Subscription' page. It lists various reports from different agencies, including Economic Research Service (ERS), National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS), and World Agricultural Outlook Board (WAOB). A table lists reports under the letter 'A', such as 'Acreage', 'Adult Agricultural Related Injuries', and 'Agricultural Chemical Usage'.

The screenshot shows the 'National Agricultural Statistics Service Publications' page. It features a search bar, navigation links, and a 'Publications' section with a 'Subscription Successful' message. The message thanks the user for subscribing and provides instructions on how to return to the NASS homepage.
