USDA to Host Special Virtual Data Users’ Meeting to Gather Public Input on Statistical Programs

September 27, 2021 – The U.S. Department of Agriculture’s (USDA) National Agricultural Statistics Service (NASS) will host a two-day virtual Fall Data Users’ Meeting on October 13-14, 2021 from noon - 3:00 p.m. ET. The meeting is free and open to the public.

The Data Users’ Meeting is regularly held to share recent and pending statistical program changes to the public, and to solicit input on these and other programs important to agriculture.

This event is organized by NASS in cooperation with the World Agricultural Outlook Board, Farm Service Agency, Economic Research Service, Agricultural Marketing Service, Foreign Agricultural Service, and the U.S. Census Bureau. Leaders from each agency will be available to take questions and comments.

To view the complete agenda and register for the virtual 2021 Fall Data Users’ Meeting, please visit www.nass.usda.gov/Education_and_Outreach/Meeting/. Links to this Zoom meeting will be e-mailed to participants after registration. For more information, contact Marisa Reuber at Marisa.Reuber@usda.gov or (202) 690-3099.
