

December 31, 2012

NEW YORK: Outside activities and daily chores continued. Temperatures ranged from below freezing to 40's. There were two snow storms in the last week. Producers were kept busy repairing machinery and removing snow when needed. Major activities included caring for livestock, spreading manure, grading and packing potatoes, onions, apples and cabbage. Winter meetings and trade shows were well attended.