

Due to the lapse in federal funding and resulting federal government shutdown, NASS canceled the January Crop Progress and Condition report.