Rick Kestle, Director

Released November 16, 2009

Agricultural Summary

Fall field work is slowing down. Days suitable for work were 6.7 days. Crop and livestock conditions continue to do well.

Field Crops Summary

Cache County reports field work is virtually over for the season. The weather has turned cold and snow is covering much of the fall grazing land. Duchesne County reports; this week has turned very cold and temperatures went down into the teens the last few nights of the week. Fall field work has really slowed down. Producers are finishing harvesting corn and the crop looks good. Beaver County reports a good storm on Friday, but a lot more moisture is needed.
